The Butterfly and the Wasp

In ancient times, it was believed that butterflies came from the spirit and soul of a person, but wasps emerged from dead mules. In their second lives, the butterfly feels useless compared to the wasp, and is jealous of its abilities. But the wasp says, "It matters not what we were, it matters what we are now."

We never want to be stuck in the past. We're always trying to evolve, finding new and fun places and people to work with and engage with.

Winemaking

This Rose is 100% estate grown. We intentionally grew and picked these grapes to make rosé (no Saignée). The Grenache comes from our estate vineyard in Paso Robles, Vineyard 101. The Blaufränkisch is from our Pomar estate, originally planted for legendary winemaker Ken Volk. The grapes were sent directly to press, whole cluster, and fermented in stainless steel tanks with native yeasts. We blended and bottled it in January 2023 to retain its youthful, bright energy and freshness.

Tasting Notes

Spring to life with the scent of freshly expressed lime peel and guava, then soothed with refreshing notes of white peach, tart lemonade and watermelon agua fresca.
